PROFESSIONAL CRACKSMEN LOOT DAYTONA POSTOFFICE.

They Get Thousands of Dollars.

Veggmen Execute a Clever Piece of Safe Cracking And Make Off With Spoils.

Sometime last night, at what hour no one knows, thieves gained an entrance into the postoffice and drilled the safe, taking its entire contents of currency and stamps. They executed a neat job and showed themselves adepts in this line of work. Aside from some splinters of wood, which was used on their drill, they left nothing disturbed or disarranged. The doors and windows were locked and undisturbed, and when Charles Messing, who is the first upon the scene at the postoffice, arrived, it was some seconds before he discovered anything out of the ordinary had happened.

The facts of the robbery so far as known are few and easily related. Professionals in that line of work gained access to the office and with a half inch bit bored through the safe door to the lock, opened the door and made off with the cash box and the stamps.

Mr. Dunn, Sr., found the empty cash box this morning about 9 o'clock in an empty barrel in the barrel and box heap back of Dunn Bros.' store. The thieves had used a cold chisel in prying it and a freshly broken piece of concrete near by is what first attracted Mr. Dunn's attention and prompted him to institute a search.

Postmaster Smith did not say just how much money and what was the value of the stamps secured but he acknowledged that the amount was considerable. It is reasonable to suppose that the amount would reach into the thousands as the local office does a large business daily at this season.

With no lights burning within the office and the surrounding high wall of mail boxes as a screen to operate behind, an office of this sort becomes a mark for veggmen.

Every year, at the height of the season, the town is full of suspicious characters. One of Daytona's sharp, hawk-eyed citizens whose summer home is in New York city, says a bunch of three suspicious characters have been hanging around town for about ten days. He thinks they have the loot.

Postmaster Smith being a careful and painstaking official, taking precaution to safeguard the interests of the postoffice, the loss of last night will be that of the postoffice department and not a personal one. It is not considered the part of wisdom to lock the stable door after the horse has been stolen, but it is probable that lights will be maintained throughout the night in the postoffice building hereafter. While not a guarantee of safety it would make a attempt at burglary hazardous.

The best detective talent of the town is at work on the burglary and it is highly probable that some suspects will be called upon before night to prove an alibi, at least.

The city is very much wrought up over last night's work and all sorts of rumors are all out.

Mrs. E. F. Oates returned yesterday from a visit with Mrs. R. M. Bond, at DeLand.

BALL TEAMS WELL MATCHED

The ball game yesterday between Daytona and Rollins College was interesting throughout. Both sides worked hard but in the ten long innings neither side was able to push the one little run, necessary to win, over the plate and so the long rows of big plump goose eggs grew the full length of the score board.

The battery for the home team was Foltz and Fleet; for Rollins, Windham and Barnes, and at the end of the first inning it was evident that it was to be a battle of batteries.

Rollins was in good practice and supported each other with rather more system than did Daytona but this was to be expected as the Daytona team had had no practice. It would seem that with a few practice games Daytona ought to prove the superior club.

Foltz for a youngster in his early teens is a wonder. He delivered the goods in professional style. He has fair speed and a deceptive curve and kept his wits at all times. He was well supported by Fleet.

Windham and Barnes worked well together and the two Daytona representatives with Rollins, Barnes and Rogers, the latter on second, gave a good account of themselves.

The best either side did was to put a man on third and that happened only once for each team; he died there.

Rollins figured on an easy victory. She had such easy walkovers elsewhere and knowing that Daytona was out of practice the visitors figured on making a merry-go-round of the Harrison Park diamond. Their minds were disabused of this erroneous notion in short order; they were up against it from the minute "play ball" was called.

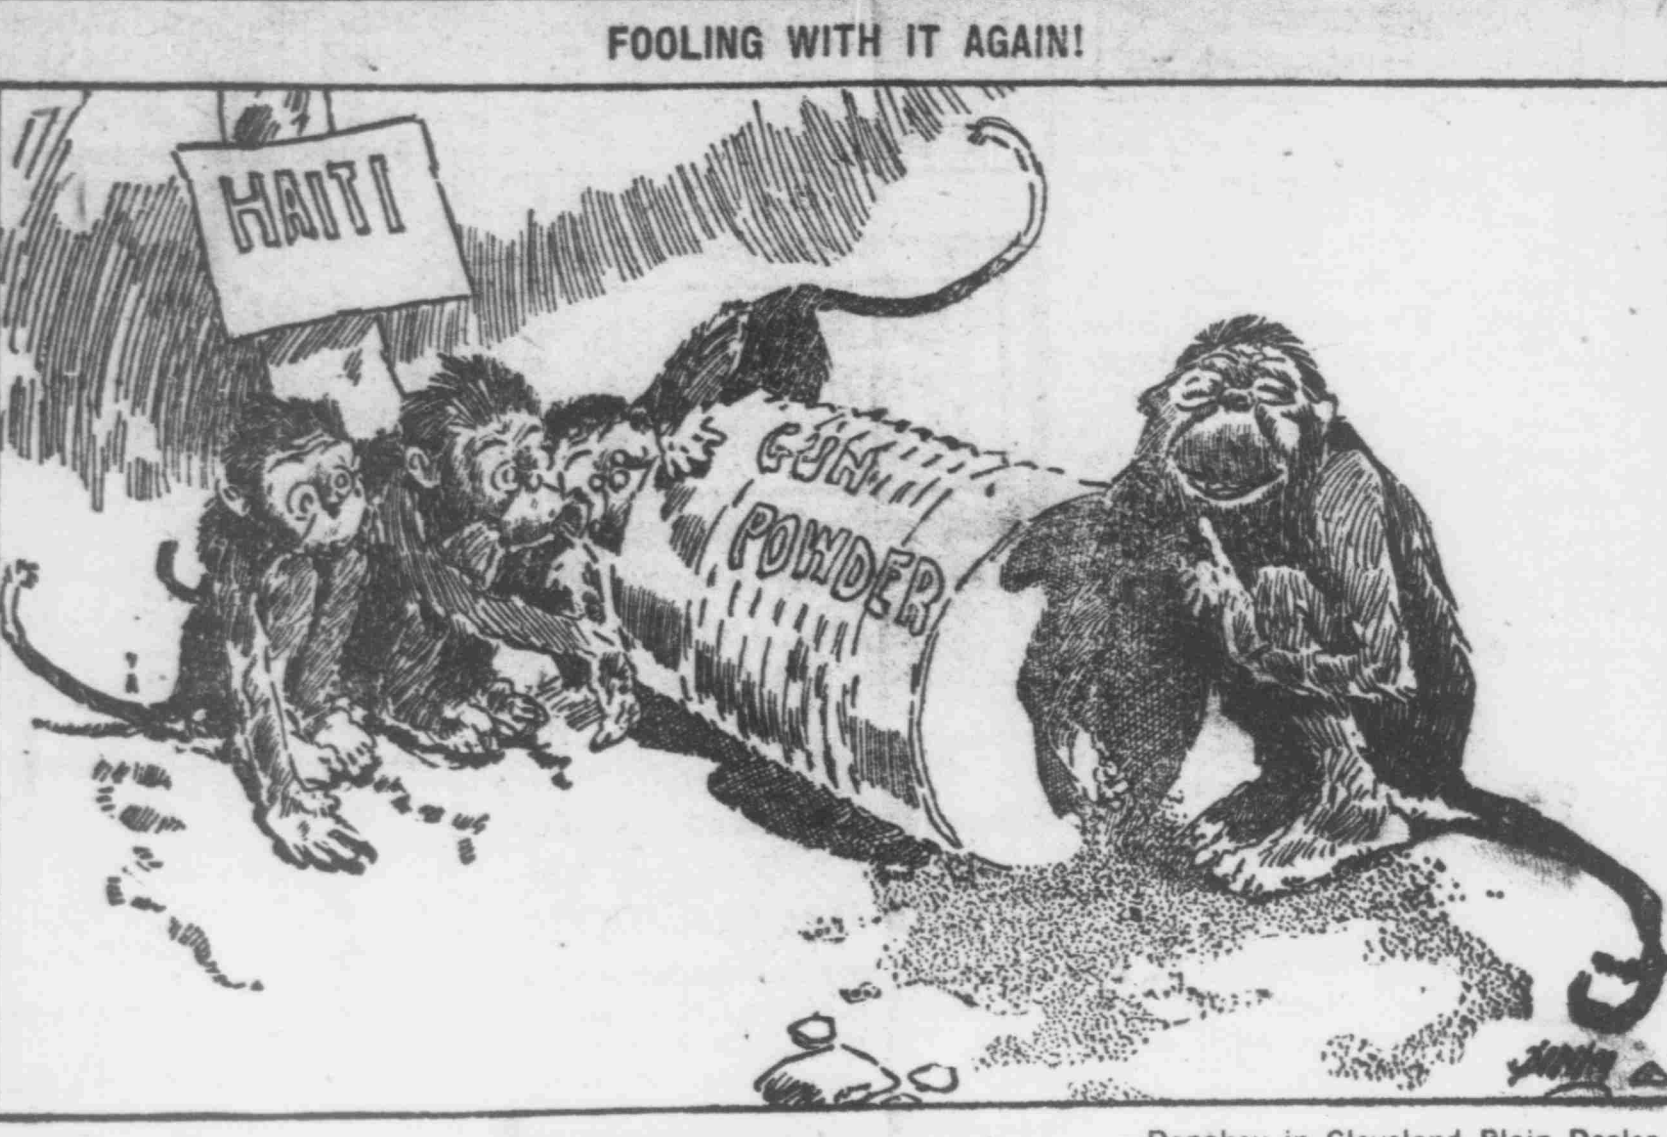

The attendance was good and everybody seemed to enjoy the sport immensely. Both teams were composed of mainly fellows and they played clean ball and good ball.

HELD ITS FINAL SESSION.

The retiring city council held its final session Wednesday evening. The report of the inspectors and clerk of election received and two ordinances passed on third reading. One providing for frequent sidewalks on the west side of Ridgewood from Bellevue avenue to Fremont street, while the other makes the numbering of buildings compulsory.

Mayor Seaman's last official act was approving the two ordinances.

LINCOLN'S FACE ON STAMPS.

Postmaster Smith received Wednesday a supply of the "Lincoln" stamps issued in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. These commemorative stamps will be placed on sale Friday, February 12. They have been sent to all postmasters of the presidential class without requisition and an additional limited supply may be had by them after Feb. 12, but postmasters of the fourth class must make requisition for what they want and before the 12th, the number allowed them was limited to 500.

These stamps are of the same shape and size as the regular issue of stamps and the color red. The subject is a profile of the head of Lincoln from Saint-Gaudens' statue in an upright oval. A spray of laurel leaves appears on either side of the oval, and above the subject are the words "U. S. Postage." Below the oval is a ribbon containing the dates of Lincoln's birth and of his 100th anniversary—"1809, Feb. 12 1909"—with the denomination, "Two cents," in words beneath.

IN MEMORY OF LINCOLN.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—A special train bearing President Roosevelt and party left at noon today for Hodgenville, Ky. The scene of Lincoln's birth is a log cabin near Hodgenville, and tomorrow the President, Governor William H. Hall, Secretary of War Luke E. Wright will address the multitudes assembled, three miles in the country at the old Lincoln cabin.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Secretary Loeb, Surgeon Richey, Captain Butte, Secret Service men, newspaper correspondents and others are in the party.

Entertained.

Friday afternoon of last week Miss Woodrich gave an Afternoon Tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Condit in honor of two visiting friends from the North, viz: Mrs. A. C. Phillip of Manchester, Iowa, and Miss Edith Barnard, one of the instructors in Chemistry of Chicago University. A dozen or more Daytona ladies of the younger set were invited to meet these visiting friends, each of whom had been requested to bring some small article unique for its oddity, use or beauty, to be sold at auction as one of the afternoon's entertainments. A bank was established, with beans for currency. Each individual's deposit consisted of the number of beans she could carry across the room on a case knife. This formality over, the auction of parcels began, with Miss Barnard as "crier" of the sale. The ridiculous things found in these packages, which had been wrapped in every conceivable manner to deceive the purchaser, caused no end of howling merriment and robust laughter. An appetizing two-course lunch was served at 5 o'clock, after which the guests departed, voting the afternoon one of the largest in their experience.

Bargain for rent. The Bennett cottage, 10 rooms corner Ridgewood and Orange. All modern conveniences. No reasonable offer refused. R. L. Smith.

FOOLING WITH IT AGAIN!

HELLO GIRL HAS A CLOSE CALL.

Parting of Supposed Rusted Telephone Wires On Live Wires Caused Trouble.

2,300 VOLTS PLAY ON KEYBOARD

Miss Louise Newton, of the Central telephone office, had a narrow escape from electrocution yesterday morning and the fact of her having escaped without a shock is due to the fact that she had temporarily laid aside the hood, or ear attachment, the operators wear when on duty.

When the telephone wires at the corner of Live Oak and Palmotto gave way yesterday during the storm and fell upon the electric light wires 2300 volts began to play upon the switchboard of the Central telephone office. The operator, at the risk of her life, called Manager Gunn, and Marshal Myers, who early saw danger, went post haste upon his wheel to the electric light plant to give warning, but Manager Gunn had just shut off the power when the marshal arrived.

As it was, the most of the damage sustained was to the switchboard at the telephone office.

If this had occurred at night when the arc lights were on, the current would have been much stronger and the danger correspondingly increased. In this case the voltage would have been 4400 instead of 2300.

If Mr. Gunn had not been in the office and caught promptly the message of the operator the danger to the telephone exchange would have been great. It was prompt action on his part in shutting down that let the exchange off with comparatively little damage.

Architect E. S. Hall, of South Palmotto avenue, recently received a crate of pineapples from his brother, James Hall, Jr., of Jupiter, which contained several extraordinarily fine specimens of the Red Spanish variety, of which Mr. Hall, who is engaged in pineapple culture at Jupiter, makes a specialty.

E. S. Hall generously presented the Daily News office with one of these fruits, so large that it caused exclamations of wonder from various members of the force and others, but it in turn was dwarfed by the largest of the pines a giant specimen, twenty-two inches in circumference and twenty-two and one-half inches measured vertically, while its weight was six pounds.

James Hall, Jr., is quite well known in Daytona, having gone to Jupiter from this city only some five or six years ago.

We Are Seven.

As showing the growing importance of Daytona is noted the rather unusual occurrence of the presence in the city of seven representatives of as many different insurance companies at one and the same time, as follows:
F. C. Calkins, of the Northern Assurance Co.
B. E. Dryden, Niagara Insurance Co.
S. Y. Tupper, Queen Insurance Co.
R. H. Collins, Scottish Union.
E. R. Schoen, Commercial Union.
J. G. Gardner, Phoenix.
O. L. Pattillo, American.

Five of the above are from Atlanta, Ga., while two, E. R. Schoen and J. G. Gardner are from Jacksonville. Some of these gentlemen will remain in Daytona for several days, and Mr. Pattillo has established his family at The Pines for a month's sojourn here.

(By United Press.)

BELLIN, Feb. 11.—King Edward's bronchial trouble prevented his taking the auto trip to Potsdam today, where he intended to place a wreath on the grave of his sister. The king will leave Berlin tomorrow for the return trip to London.

Criminal Court Adjourns.

The Criminal Court of Record adjourned its February sitting last night at DeLand after the briefest session in the history of this court. Little business of importance was brought before the court or transacted.

CONSPIRACY, SAYS SHAY.

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Attorney Joseph Shay, one of counsel for Hains brothers, arrested with Walter Peck, on the charge of plotting towards the escape from the Tombs of the prisoner, denounced the arrest as part of a great conspiracy against him.

THE PREMIER IS ROASTED.

(By United Press.)

PARIS, Feb. 11.—In a fiery speech delivered in the Chamber of Deputies today Deputy Delahayes arraigned Premier Clemenceau, whose administration, he declared, was leading France into early civil war.

Wedding Bells.

J. Fletcher Burnette of Gainesville, Fla., and Miss Alma V. Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Ed. Sullivan, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother on First avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. B. F. Marsh, pastor of the Congregational church, performing the ceremony.

The bride, who was attired in a becoming tailor-made travelling suit, was given away by her cousin Frank Sullivan, and the young couple departed on the afternoon train for Gainesville, where they will make their home.

The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and a few friends being present.

Funeral Here, Burial Ponce Park.

The funeral of Mrs. John Gardner, who died Sunday morning in a New York hospital, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the Congregational church, the Rev. B. F. Marsh officiating. The remains will be taken aboard the steamer Dixie and carried to Ponce Park for interment beside those of her father, Capt. Bartoli Pacetti.

A Heavy Vote Was Polled Yesterday.

W. H. Edmondson Re-elected Assessor; H. T. Titus, Collector; S. Heyman, Defeated.

It was so quiet about the election precinct yesterday that you could hear yourself think. The silence became so oppressive that nearly everybody but the election officers quit "Riverside avenue" and went out to Harrison Park to root for Daytona vs. Rollins.

Toward night a little interest developed and a number flocked in to hear the results.

The highest vote cast for any one candidate was for the efficient and popular city clerk, A. McF. Porter, who received 199 votes. The next highest vote cast was for E. J. Mills for councilman.

Ex-Mayor Greene won hands down, and Justice Titus captured the collectorship in easy fashion.

But perhaps it is better to let the official result tell the tale all the way through, so here it is, the name opposite the * is that of the successful candidate:

NO SCHOOL TILL MONDAY

The Daytona High School adjourned yesterday afternoon till Monday in order that the teachers may have two days in which to visit other schools. The Daytona teachers will devote themselves mostly to nearby schools as so limited a time would not admit of visits to any number of distant schools.

Later in the season other schools will take a two-day vacation for the purpose of similar visits. The school authorities authorized this in order that the teachers may look in upon one another and observe methods and manner of conducting classes, hoping that it would give them new ideas, more inspiration and better fit them for the important service.

The negro, Theodore Hart, who did the shooting at Daytona Monday afternoon, an account of which was given in the Daily News, had been employed by Jack Baggett as cutter at his meat shop, and borrowed Mr. Baggett's wheel to make the trip to Daytona. Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 11—The rains, which came like a benediction to the grass and flowers, disappointed quite a number of winter residents, who had planned to spend the day on some one of the excursion boats. But as soon as the sun out the crowd hastened to the beach, and in the excitement of a purring surf, soft blue skies, flecked with fleeciest clouds, a brisk, vitalizing breeze, found full compensation for other pleasures foregone.

Miss Bertha Clark, of New York City, is a recent arrival at The White House. S. W. Bishop, of Ocala, came over from DeLand yesterday, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. J. Bishop, on Seabreeze, avenue for a few days.

Mrs. Taylor and daughter, and sister, Miss Proctor, of the Vermont House, are spending the week at Palm Beach.

Mrs. C. R. Youree and son, Charles S. Youree, arrived from St. Louis, Tuesday, and are pleasantly located at Surf Crest. This is their second season at Daytona Beach and Surf Crest, and the pleasant acquaintances they made last winter are being renewed.

The Seaside Inn received the following guests yesterday: Miss Grace Tucker and A. Gilbert, Fulton, N. Y.; G. H. McCreary, St. Augustine, Mr. and Mrs. Van Hoy, Ind.

William Simpson arrived yesterday from Melrose, Mass., and is a guest at Daytona Beach Hotel.

Dr. John Fairfield and family have been located but a short time in their new bungalow, on Home street, but already they have their front yard well set to flowers. The home itself is very neat and complete in every detail, and to the visitor presents a very homelike, attractive appearance. Dr. Fairfield and family will remain until May 1st, and will make this their permanent winter home.

Two more new cottages are to be built on Home street during the spring or summer. One of these will be built by Hiram Sanborn, of Dover, N. H., and we understand both are intended as winter homes.

An invitation dance at the Casino last night was well attended, and a pleasant recreation for the terrace devotees.

A Deliberate Native.
In a certain section of the country, where the natives take life easy, a young man and his sister were one day sitting on the porch when a funeral passed. The boy, who was whittling in a chair tilted comfortably back against the side of the house on its hind legs, remarked:
"I reckon 'ol man Johnson's got about the biggest funeral that's ever been held around here."
"A purty good sized one, is it?" questioned the sister.
"You betcher!" the boy answered.
"I would like to see it," replied the girl. "What a pity I ain't facin' that way!"

The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers
beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck
and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican peck
a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stiggling upward with his floundering load
he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish dareries, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscope change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.
Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed
are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and hiding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

A Golf Story.
Scotsmen are noted for their eccentricity, and a story told by a Lancashire commercial traveler, who was up in Aberdeen a few days ago, shows that the men beyond the Tweed are still worthily upholding their reputation. The traveler in question was asked by a prospective buyer to subscribe to the prize fund for the local golf tournament. He parted with 5 shillings, and as he was interested in golf he remarked that he would like to be kept informed of the progress of the tournament so that he could look out for the result.

"Oh," said the customer as he picked up the 5 shillings and placed it securely in his pocket, "ye neednae dae that. The tournament was held last Saturday." This was rather a staggerer for the latest contributor to the prize fund, but he retained curiosity enough to inquire who had proved the happy winner. The golfless solicitor for subscriptions was quite undisturbed, however. "The winner?" he said coolly. "Oh, just me!"—Exchange.

A Wonderful Shot.
They were telling how well they could shoot, and Tom Dawson recalled a duck hunt in which he had brought down five birds with one shot.

"Talk about shooting!" began old man Tiffed. "I saw Jim Peters do a mighty neat piece of work one day. His wife was washing the wash, and she was complaining about the peckers making dirt marks on the damp clothes with their feet."

"They're thick as bees round here," says she. "There's seven of 'em sitting on the clothesline this blessed minute."

"Oh, fix 'em," says Jim, taking down his shotgun, which he always keeps loaded with fine bird shot. He tipped to the door, took aim and—

"Killed every one of them sparrows," broke in Dawson.

"You're wrong," corrected Tiffed calmly. "He never touched 'em, but when his wife took in the wash, she found she had three pairs of openwork stockings and a fine peckaboo shirt waist."—Success Magazine.

Proved an Alibi.
This happened at a certain boarding house, one of those where a few refined gentlemen may share an elegant home.

The girl with the dun locks brought in the soap. When she came to Jenkins he noticed a long string of substance entirely foreign to the soap itself. It was a hair. In the dim light it looked as if it might have been from the dun head of the waitress.

Jenkins called her attention to this remarking that the best culinary authorities are agreed that a strip of cranial capillary substance is not essential to the success of a plate of consommé or other liquid nourishment.

She didn't follow him fully, but when she saw him holding up the quarter of a yard or more of hair accusingly she spoke up in her own defense.

"That ain't mine," she declared in an aggrieved tone. "It couldn't be mine. Why, I ain't even brushed my hair since yesterday!"—New York Press.

WILL VISIT CIVIL ROME.
By United Press.
ROME, Feb. 11.—It is positively announced in court circles that Czar Nicholas will pay a visit to Quirina about the middle of March.

A Birthday Surprise.
It happens that the birthdays of Mrs. Emma Edick and Mrs. S. H. Moseley occur on consecutive days, and taking advantage of this fact a number of their friends gave them a joint surprise celebration Wednesday evening.

Mr. Merwin, on behalf of the assembly company presented Mrs. Edick and Mrs. Moseley each with a silver spoon as a birthday souvenir and refreshments of sandwiches, cake and punch were served.

The evening was enlivened with music and story telling. Mrs. Bellario giving several selections on the piano, and Mr. Staples furnishing some funny stories, at which he is an adept.

After the refreshments had been served Mrs. Staples took her place at the piano and Mrs. Moseley and Mr. Spring tripped lightly to the music amidst the applause of the onlookers. The company then dispersed, after wishing the ladies many more anniversaries of their natal days.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Townsend, Mr. and F. D. Spring, Mr. and Mrs. A. Staples, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hallack, Irving Knowlton and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merwin and son.

Deceiving The Public.
By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Holding the Hepburn rate law up to scorn as "make-shift legislation, deceptive to the public with provisions full of pleasing enjoyment to railroad monopolists," Representative Madden, Republican of Illinois, scolded Congress on the floor of the House this afternoon.

ORMOND
The gentlemen of Ormond gave an entertainment to the ladies of the V. I. A. and their friends on Friday evening of last week at the V. I. A. rooms. A banquet was served at 8 o'clock in Mr. James Carnell's jolly factory where all the good things pertaining to the appetite were partaken of. Mrs. M. McNeil, president of the V. I. A., was toast mistress and many of the toasts given were witty and well received by the guests present. Some 175 sat down to the tables. The menu consisted of blue points, Port Orange, raw and stew, chicken salad from the Ormond Hotel, ham sandwiches, cakes and fruit. Everlasting and the occasion.
